Milton's Cottage, Chalfont St. Giles. To this interesting house the village owes its many visitors. Milton came here in 1665 to escape the Great Plague, and finished "Paradise Lost" and partly wrote "Paradise Regained" during the time he lived there. The cottage was purchased by public subscription in 1887, and is now used as a museum for Milton relics.

Milton's Cottage, Chalfont St. Giles, Bucks. England.
This cottage owes its interest to the fact that Milton took refuge here in 1665 to escape the Great Plague, and finished "Paradise Lost" and partly wrote "Paradise Regained" during the time he lived there. The cottage was purchased by public subscription in 1887, and is now used as a museum for Milton relics.
